This is the true-life story of a little girl that grew into a woman without ever experiencing the joy of true love. Abandoned by her biological parents at the tender age of three, she became the foster child of guardians that had no parenting skills or the ability to demonstrate genuine love. As a result, this little girl wandered off and slipped into darkness. While looking for love, she abandoned her education and became a single mother at the age of sixteen. As she continued her descend into darkness, she became addicted to crack (cocaine) while yet looking for true love. During her desperate search for Mr. Good Man she became pregnant again, this time by a lover that was HIV positive. After discovering that she had been infected with the deadly virus, she abandoned her quest for true love and sought out unsuspecting lovers to support her crack addiction. During her vindictive trek she would birth two more fatherless children before being stopped at age thirty-two by complications caused by AIDS. This is her story.
