Conversations with Toni Cade Bambara (Paperback)

By -

University Press of Mississippi, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. Conversations with Toni Cade Bambara reveals an artist and activist whose work deftly negotiates boundaries of feminism, nationalism, and film. The intimacy of these collaborations or conversations between Bambara (1939-1995) and her interviewers provides an excellent and necessary resource for those interested in scholarly approaches to her fiction, especially her novels The Salt Eaters and the posthumously published Those Bones Are Not My Child, and her acclaimed short story collection Gorilla, My Love. The collection reveals the passion, humor, and real-life experiences of the woman who through her editing of the groundbreaking anthology of black women's writing The Black Woman and contributions to the documentary W. E. B. Du Bois: A Biography in Four Voices changed perceptions of African American culture in the modern era. The interviews present a woman who saw herself as a teacher who writes, a social worker who writes, a youth worker who writes, a mother who writes. Bambara viewed herself as a cultural worker for oppressed people whose job as an artist was making, in her words, revolution irresistible. Indeed, her fiction champions the working class and average...
