

Dusty Rose: A Saga of Unrequited Love (Paperback)

By Sebastian Quinn

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . During the course of time, Platonic friendships have provided fertile soil for unrequited love and emotional affairs. The object of unrequited love or an emotional affair is quite often a friend or acquaintance, someone regularly encountered in the workplace, during the course of work, school or other activities involving groups of people. An unrequited love environment may be quite uncomfortable and can become a situation in which the admirer has difficulty in expressing his/her true feelings due to potential rejection as well as embarrassment and the loss of contact with the beloved. The lack of ability of the unrequited lover to express his/her emotional needs may often lead to feelings of depression, low self-esteem, and anxiety; and perhaps abrupt mood swings vacillating between depression and euphoria. It has been stated by many that there is nothing worse than realizing you truly desire someone and knowing you can never have him or her. * * * On the other hand, an emotional affair especially between coworkers may or may not lead to a physical (sexual) affair. Even if it remains...
