This book features: a lot of candidates with the so-called feel or sense of the phrase to guess the answer. Two pairs of key words is not the depth of the subject. Cloze test and translation are the candidates for the mastery of grammar and vocabulary. Cloze not depend on a lot of feel. but less than rely on sense of the phrase to guess the answer. but with implications for the analysis of grammar and vocabulary to push the answer. Translated title is the same regardless of grammar. vocabulary. idioms can be translated or understood the topic and the object. Therefore. candidates should achieve good results in the translation must have a good knowledge base of language (words. phrases. grammar) and considerable proficiency of the language (semantic. word form. part of speech. sentence structure. fixed phrases. etc.); addition must also have strong reading and writing skills. Wood introduced the book in two parts rice. The first part. Cloze explain the problem-solving methods; the second part. translations of the relevant skills. These two parts are described on the basis of knowledge of English. with emphasis on training the reader's examination skills. We believe that careful study in the sad book. it will certainly be in the upcoming four exams to get good grades.
