Living Light Language reveals a mysterious metaphysical process by which the human being is illuminated in consciousness development. Describing how the unseen world of Spirit is comprehended by those of us in the 3rd dimensional plane of material existence through the medium of Love and Light is illuminated upon. Out of an infinite variety of ways by which this divine inspiration flows, there are numerous examples given. One such example is given through an understanding of sacred geometry. How, these patterns of transformation are perceived on all levels of existence and contain vast amounts of information encoded into their very form. Human beings are constantly downloading and digesting these symbols, which eventually rise into the conscious state as a revelation or insight into progressive development. Such transformation comes about through the qualities of sound and light which bring evolutionary information.
