He lay in a dark dungeon, in privation and loneliness except for the malefactors and evil men around him. Here, for ought anyone knew, was to terminate a life that had much promise for this dreamer. To those who knew only the superficial circumstances, what did this hour say? That virtue is not profitable. That if one is to succeed, he must make obeisance to power, and not listen to his conscience. As we know history, what do the centuries say? That virtue is a highway to the favour of God. That upon one great act world history may be built. That a generation was established upon this man s merit. That his family manner should be carried by worthy men down to the latest day. And that his life has coloured the history of the world. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
