Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Leonie of the Jungle Who found the kitten? Me, quavered the childish voice. Lady Susan Hetth tchcked with her tongue against her rather prominent teeth and the lamentable lapse in grammar, and looked crossly at Leonie, who immediately lifted up the quavering voice and wept. Sobs too big for such a little girl shook the slender body, whilst great tears dripped from the long lashes to the tip of the upturned nose, down the chin and on the knee of the famous specialist, against which she rested. Stand up, Leonie, and push your hair out of your eyes! The thin little body tautened like an overstrung violin string, and a shock of russet hair was pushed hastily back from a pair of indefinable eyes, in which shone the light of an intense grief strange in one so young. Leave her to me, Lady Hetth! The surgeon s voice was exceedingly suave but with the substratum of steel which had served to bend other wills to his with an even greater facility than the thumb of the potter moulds clay to his fancy. Leonie is going to tell me everything, and then she is going to the shop to buy a big doll and forget all about it! Please may I have a book instead of - Leonie, that is very rude.
