EXTRAORDINARY GIVING STUDY WORKBOOK (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is a workbook for an individual or group study of the book, Extraordinary Giving. A Leader's Study Guide is also available for a leader/teacher who will be conducting a study of a group. A Power Point presentation to enhance the teaching of a group and a nine CD teaching by the author is available as well, which can be used to assist the leader/teacher in their preparations of each lesson. This teaching will help develop an individual's character to be a giver. When the principle of giving is applied scripturally the supernatural will operate in the individual's life to perform the miraculous. In the midst of an economical crisis is the best time to prove God's Word for those who believe. Ask yourself this question; am I really ready for the new and better, because it will change all that I am accustomed to? If you are ready, then you will have to trust God and be ready to move ahead with Him. The best thing about trusting Him is, He will never leave you behind. He will go with you through whatever you have to endure, because He wants the best for you. Cornelius looked beyond the normal of that day and believed God. A Jew having fellowship with a Gentile, much less entering into his house, was definitely not the norm for that day and time. If God said a Jew would come to him and enter his home, then Cornelius had no problem believing it would happen. Cornelius praying and giving got him through his challenges to the new and better. Giving is the heart of God. So crawl up into the Father...
