Executive assistants are arguably the most influential people on a chief executive s staff. Currently, over 8 million administrative professionals help over 4 million executives general managers to broker and schedule meetings, decide who gets the CEO s ear, and select airlines, hotels, car rentals, and other vendors. In addition, they often support the CEOs personal needs. They also regularly give input to the CEO on employees, from new candidates to old-timers, and they most definitely impact the fortunes of the businesses that serve them. CEO executive assistants are historically a secret weapon - typically not even recognized for their power to influence the CEO, and often written off as just a secretary.
