

Robert The Robot Stories

By Sid Cooper

XLIBRIS. Paperback. Condition: New. 48 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.1in. Professor Smart doesn't like doing housework so he invents and builds a robot to do it for him. It's only a structure made out of pieces of electronic equipment but gradually the professor adds more and more refinements. He teaches it to play chess but not too well because he doesn't want a robot to beat him all the time. As the robot becomes more familiar to him, the professor gives it a name, Robert, and Robert develops a personality. Robert and Professor Smart find themselves involved in all sorts of strange situations and adventures. Of course, Robert doesn't get paid for his work. All he needs is a drop of oil and a little electricity. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
