Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The second book of the Grail Quest trilogy, introduces a new line of enquiry for the Arthurian heroes to explore. What happened to Joseph of Armathea s treasure? This treasure, reported to have been handed down to King Solomon contained amongst other things the Holy Grail (the vessel used by Jesus at the last supper). These items were housed in a great Ark, or chest, now known as the Ark of the Covenant. With neither opposing parties ready for war, a strange peace descends upon the land. This calm does not suit Gawain, who is restless and wants revenge for his brother s death. He goes off on his own and gets involved with a ruthless and provocative female, by the name of Ragnell. The brave and reckless Gawain soon realises he has met his match. This maiden has knowledge that even the greatest scholars in the land do not, but more importantly, she is ruthless and obsessed at finding the Ark. At first Gawain thinks Ragnell is insane, but as they journey together he begins to feel her story could be true. The couple get lost in the great Rheged Mountains and stumble upon a secret cave, filled with strange clues of past Gods and Demons. No matter how bad things get, Ragnell will not give up her quest. Journey with them into a strange world and be astonished at what they find. The combat that seems inevitable between Guinevere and Morgan Le Fay is put on hold. But that does not stop the combatants from trying to gain the upper hand, by sly and deceitful methods. By the use of magic and the use of poison, both courts reek of intrigue...
