Conover, of Florida, in the United States Senate, June 23, 1874 Mr. Conover. I move that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the resolution offered by me on the 14th of May last, in reference to the arrest, imprisonment, and trial of F. A. Dockray, a citizen of Florida. The motion was agreed to; and the Senate proceeded to consider the following resolution: Resolved, That the President of the United States is hereby requested, if in his opinion compatible with the public interest, to lay before the Senate the correspondence between the Government and our consular agents in Cuba and the Spanish government in reference to the arrest, imprisonment, and trial of F. A. Dockray, a citizen of the United States, for alleged political offenses committed in Cuba. Mr. Conover. Mr. President, there is nothing so peculiar in the conduct pursued by the Spanish authorities in Cuba toward Mr. Dockray that alone would have led me, as a representative of the State of which he is a...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
