Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Irrigation District Laws of Oregon: 1919 Irrigation District May Be Organized. Section 1. Whenever fifty or a majority of the owners of land irrigated or susceptible of irrigation desire to provide for the construction of works for the irrigation of the same, or desire to provide for the reconstruction, betterment, extension, purchase, operation or maintenance of works already constructed, or for the assumption as principal or guarantor of indebtedness on account of district lands to the United States under the federal reclamation laws, they may propose the organization of an irrigation district under the provisions of this chapter by signing a petition therefor and presenting the same to the county court of the county in which the land, or the greater portion thereof is situated; said petition shall set forth and particularly describe the boundaries of the proposed irrigation district and shall state that it is the purpose of the petitioners to organize an irrigation district under the provisions of this act, and shall pray that the same be organized hereunder. The petitioners shall accompany the petition with a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the county court, in double the amount of the probable cost of organizing such district, conditioned that the bondsman will pay all the said costs in case said organization be not effected. Such petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of the county court, or at any special meeting called to consider and act upon the same, and shall be published once each week for at least four successive weeks before the time at which the same is to be presented, in some newspaper printed and published...
