

The Day of War: Practical Applications for Spiritual Warfare

By Allen Porter

WestBow Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Day of War helps readers understand the strategies and the weapons that are available to us for this day. For those who have been walking in faith for many years, it will refresh and affirm many things you already know, as well as help you to go deeper in your understanding of spiritual warfare. For those newer in the faith, The Day of War will help to lay a solid foundation for fighting the spiritual battles in life with God s mighty power. The Day of War puts emphasis on the significant details of spiritual warfare instead of the sensational. This is not to say that sensational things do not occur in our spiritual battles. However, those who seek the sensational often end up in error. Those who keep their priorities in order will find themselves being faithful in the little things, so that when something big comes along, they are well prepared to handle it with wisdom and strength. Allen Porter is a one-of-a-kind thought leader, thinker, and communicator. When I first met Allen...
