FINLAND: MODERN ARCHITECTURES IN HISTORY (PAPERBACK)

Reaktion Books, United Kingdom, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. From as early as 1900 Finland, at that time ruled by Russia, was to see in architecture a political and social vehicle. Modern architecture, with the promises it held for social change and hopes for technological progress, was to become a cultural phenomenon over the course of the twentieth century. This book explores the shape of architecture from Finland s independence in 1917 until the present..
