Excerpt: . . . on one excuse or another, and frightened some on them, as the naked statue did the factory gall, into fits amost. But the English we have to soft sawder, for theyve got little sloops o war, too, as well as we have; and not only show their teeth, but bite like bull-dogs. We shampoo them, --you know what shampooing is, squire, dont you It is an Eastern custom, I think, said I: I have heard of it, but I do not retain a very distinct recollection of the practice. Well, said the Clockmaker, I estimate I ought to know what it means any how for I came plaguy nigh losin my life by it once. When I was gist twenty years old, I took it into my head Id like to go to sea, --so father got me a berth of supercargo of a whaler at New Bedford, and away we went arter sperm: an amazin long voyage we had of it too--gone nearly three years. Well, we put into Sandwich Island for refreshments; and says the captain, Spose we go and call on the queen! So all us cabin party went, and dressed ourselves up full fig, and were introduced in due form to the young queen. Well, she was a rael, right down, pretty lookin heifer, and no mistake; well dressed and well demeaned, and a plaguy sight clearer skind than some white folks--for they bathe every day amost. Where youd see...
