BEHOLD THE RADIANCE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . About the Author Hilarion M. Henares, Jr. is the bridge of the last generation of nationalist writers and the coming one. His passionate nationalist ideology which is not different from that of the legendary intellectual. Senator Recto, is present in his more important writings and public pronouncements. His probings on the present stirrings in our kind of society deserves more than a passing notice. But Larry Henares is more than a spokesman of nationalist economic philosophy. He is also a lover of the good life. His interests in arts and letters is deep-rooted. He admires Adlai Stevenson for his nobility and for his intellectual pride. In some extent, Recto and Stevenson are the models that he seemed to adopt in his public life. His capacity for oral communication more than confirm this attitude. Henares had been, among all others, head of a multi-million peso industrial complex and President of the Philippine Chamber of Industries. During the Macapagal regime, he was the highest paid member of the cabinet as Chairman of the National Economic Council. He had also an occasion to be a Dean of a university at a very young age of twenty-five. On May 15, 1965, Henares, Jr. was conferred a degree of Doctor of Economics, honoris causa, by the Arancta University for outstanding contribution to the national welfare as an educator, entrepreneur, writer, civic leader, economist, devoted public servant, and a nationalist. Clearly young as he is, Henares is at the pinnacle of his career. The triangulation of events will in the end inexorably point to his passionate destiny as a leader. As NEC Chairman, Secretary Henares took the initiative to conduct the now famous hearings on...
