Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I Want My Country Back is a provocative book meant to entice the reader into thinking beyond what is apparent in our society today and begin once more to think in terms beyond one. This book will probe you to get beneath the surface of our everyday crises to reconnect to our past, envision a growing future and start to live in the present as a United States again. The first two thirds of the book disclose major hardship topics severely affecting our society today and exposing the reader to the draining causes of where we, as a nation have gone astray and ended up. A common underlying theme points to the root cause triggering many of the dilemmas we find ourselves straddled with today and offers some alternatives towards stemming the tide of where we are heading so we may garner new hope and vision that will lead to long term growth manufactured out of substance rather than spun out of hype. The final third of this reading introduces some opportunity and suggestions for the challenges we face to brighten our future and ignite a passion to pass on a legacy that restores the American Dream that our forefathers afforded us. The message being conveyed here attempts to rekindle our society to dare facing ourselves and where our true allegiance lies as a people so that we can renew the perpetual fight for independence with that eternal spirit that ushered in our freedom.
