Upper World Limited. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Secret History of Twin Planet Earth (2nd Revised edition), Errol Hawkins, The accepted history of Earth differs greatly from the observable evidence. The main purpose of this book is to challenge the accepted history of Earth, and of Mankind, by placing observational evidence that would lead to a different conclusion, if these observations were respected. The accepted history is only maintained because there are some critical gaps in the knowledge. According to the accepted scientific opinion, the Moon was formed by a 'Giant Impact' on Earth, by a body about the size of planet Mars; but there are no displaced-orbit theory. This impact, in the friction-free environment of space, would displace the Earth by millions of miles. Where was the Earth located before this impact? Missing theories: all Ancient Calendars - needed a plus-factor adjustment (more days per year), evidence of a wider-orbit displacement. That is, despite the fact that the rotation of the Earth is slowing down. The Earth with its 'Giant Satellite' - and there is no size-ratio definition of a twin-planet system. There is no theory for the gravity-dynamics of twin planets. The order of the inner solar system is disrupted by the fragments of the Asteroid Belt - where a mathematical formula, predicts that another planet should be; this formula is known as Bodes Law. There are no theories for this 'Missing-Planet', and no consensus for the cause of the Asteroid Belt. These are a few of the missing theories. The interest they would have stimulated is missing, and the line of enquiry they would force us to follow is also missing. Theory without a useful function: to make matters worse, there is a theory that ought not to be there, even worse - this is the...
