Excerpt: . . . not to be had inside of six months, so almost worthless ones of oriental make were bought. At the same time a man had to be employed to keep these drawing tools in repair, they were so poorly made. All workshop tools for the first class were furnished by the college, but the new class was required to pay for many of the tools used. Wooden planes, squares, marking gages, etc. , were made by a carpenter hired by the college. All this caused a delay in getting down to work in the shop for several months. In addition to this burden, the class could be divided into only two divisions, one of fiO and one of 59. No assistant was allowed and the work had to be carried on through interpreters who had had no experience in manual-arts work. Two interpreters were furnished...

Reviews

Merely no words to explain. I really could comprehend everything out of this published e book. I found out this publication from my dad and i suggested this publication to learn.

-- Prof. Margarita Ledner PhD

This written pdf is fantastic. It normally is not going to expense a lot of. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
