Bloomscript Inc., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. I was petrified we would have a girl. Everything about having a girl was horrible to me - the princess parties, the fear of her safety, and the emotional roller coaster ride. But mostly I was afraid she would be like me - suicidal, unable to make brave choices, and trapped inside a body she didn't love. Among the many stories in this book, Kirsten shares the difficulty of marriage, the struggle to love herself and her body, the triumph of facing her fears, the pain of loving a child, the regret of decisions, and the freedom of knowing yourself. She discusses these with a rare honesty and sometimes offers up surprising advice as a result. It is a woman's reflection on the halfway point of her life and the journey to get there. She shares the joy of being in the moment: I am not anticipating the next stop, I am here paying attention and loving what I see....
