SECRETS OF THE PACIFIC (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I started dating boys after my first love failed to ever ask me out and I had waited for him to call for four years. Then we moved to Texas and the boys moved fast there so at age ten I had my first boyfriend. We switched schools from fourth grade to fifth grade where my dad built us a mansion, not to mention my first peck happened in that house with my fourth boyfriend of the same calendar year. However, my first real kiss happened at a party in the sixth grade. This boy was in theatre as well and we both had the leads in the play that spring. He played The Grand Bunkleman and I played Nurse Funjolity. One Friday night, a classmate had a party. All the popular boys showed up, as did the Grand Bunkleman. We played a round of Spin the Bottle, and when it was his turn, he spun the bottle, picked it up and pointed it at me! We had our first kiss and I must say, it probably he is still on my top ten list of Best Kissers. We kissed all night, so much so that everyone said we should get married . So, we appointed a kid named Matt as the priest, we walked down the aisle, he gave me a real silver 955 ring that actually fit my ring finger and when the vows were over all the kids at the party put their arms in the air to form a V form for us to run underneath. Needless to say our marriage ended on Monday at play rehearsals and I threw the ring on a nearby train track when...
