

Charles II (Paperback)

By Jacob Abbott

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The ascension of Charles II to the British throne in 1660 marked the end of the English republican era-and the start of a period of unparalleled hedonism amongst the English ruling elite. The reader is first given the astonishing-and often shocking-details of Charles II s youth, including his parent s desperate but ultimately fruitless attempts to retain the throne. That sad tale ends with Charles I s public execution, and the imprisonment or exile in France of his family. Charles II s reign was marked by a series of major foreign and domestic political upheavals, which, despite their gravity, amazingly do nothing to shake the monarchy s position in society. This was the time of the Great Fire of London, the worst outbreak ever of the plague, and of the Second Anglo-Dutch war-and of continuing religious conflict between Catholics and Protestants. Charles II navigated his way through all these crises, often with an impish sense of humor: For example, he would often drive his counsellors to exasperation when, at major political meetings, he would prefer to play with his own breed of...
