

Koka Ryu Ninjutsu: Inside the World of the Shadow Warriors (Paperback)

By MR Rodolfo Turolla

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This book is not a martial arts manual. It is not about how to become a ninja and is not a 10 days black belt course. Although ninjutsu has been already introduced in the Western world since the 80s, there are still a lot of misconceptions and discussions about it. Many have taken the advantage of the shadow of information to create and claim their styles out of a black costume and some street fighting techniques. Others are still fascinated by the word ninja thinking about magical power and invincibility, while someone else would even think about killers or thieves. If we ask ten people in the street what a ninja is, most likely we will get ten different answers. This book comes after over 20 years of research into martial arts and Asian culture. It offers a unique insight into the classic art of ninjutsu; from the places where it has originated, explained through the words of a mentor and researcher who has dedicated his whole life to it. It includes pictures of places of historical significance and...
