

Y. Pestis

By P. D. Saracin

Paperback. Condition: New. 100 pages. Sean McVean returns in this third, fact-based novel of terror and deception to confront his old nemesis, Raschid Nurideen, in a tale that plays out from the gentle Low Country of South Carolina to the frigid clime of an isolated island off the Newfoundland coast. Reverend Buford T. Miller wants to lead his parishioners-his Colonists to a new life, away from government interference and the corrupting influences of the outside world, closer to the values of home and family. But Nurideen has other ideas--eyeing the little group as the perfect means for spreading terror into the heart of America. In this tale of good versus evil, Sean McVean becomes the key to unlocking Nurideens plot. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
