

A Pigeon s Tale (Paperback)

By S a Mahan

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Deborah Mahan (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In this epic scifi/fantasy tale told by a 800-year-old pigeon: Walter is a pigeon living with his parents in a rancher s coop when a deranged wildcat attacks and sends them scrambling for their lives. Barely escaping with his life, Walter finds himself in a city where kindly street pigeons teach him about language, philosophy, and politics. A venture south to find a human family for the winter sees him face more desperate peril as a flock of snow geese help him finish the journey. Finding solace in a dorm room with two young college students, Walter heads home with one of them to a ranch in Texas where he is adopted by the close-knit family and their quirky pets. Walter forms a quick bond with the scientist grandfather who spends every day with Walter, working on a project in a mysterious tiny shack behind the house. This secret work soon becomes the center of Walter s life- and his fate-when he is thrust into an epic struggle for survival against cosmic forces that threaten to destroy...
