SERVICE AND REGULATORY ANNOUNCEMENTS: OCTOBER 1929 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

FBC LTD, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Service and Regulatory Announcements: October 1929 This requirement must be rigidly observed and in carrying it out it is important that employees dismiss the idea, which has probably been responsible for some misuse, that roundabout travel for personal reasons between points in an official itinerary is not to be deemed personal travel. It is based not only on the fundamental impropriety of using the Government requests for personal travel but on the fact that such throws upon both the bureau and the General Accounting Office the burden of auditing, settling, and paying additional, transportation accounts. A single illustration of an instance, in the use of requests as indicated. Above, which has been permitted heretofore but can not now be allowed, is as follows: An employee is directed to perform official travel from Washington, D. C., to Chicago, Ill., but is granted permission to go via Indianapolis for the purpose of taking annual leave. Heretofore, he has been allowed to use a request to Indianapolis and another from Indianapolis to Chicago, and the excess over the direct fare from Washington to Chicago has been deducted from his expense account. Under present requirements he will be obliged to pay cash fare for the entire trip. Numerous illustrations could be given, but this concrete example will suffice.
