Alan Machin

Westwood Start. Paperback. Condition: New. 412 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.8in. x 0.8in. Tourism is big business, worldwide. Most people regard it as a purely leisure industry. Some have criticised it as a pastime for the rich at the expense of the poor. They have called it a self-indulgent way of life replacing the real industrial worlds of farms and factories. Yet tourism was actually used to create the commercial and industrial revolutions. Today, it has the potential to bring about...
