CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 46 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.1in. A new method is described in this booklet that assists a person in choosing the most effective dress colors based on bits of information such as their date of birth and name. With help of easy to read tables included in this booklet, any person can determine such colors in minutes despite the fact that a choice is made from thousands of colors and personality types. The method is equally applicable to males and females. Color is individual and influential. Those who have discovered their personal colors look more interesting, more confident and more attractive. There is undoubtedly much that still remains beyond reach of scientific understanding. For example, in the area of clothing colors, many have realized that during work hours professional executives appear and behave far more efficiently in a white shirt and navy blue jacket rather than in a dark shirt or brown jacket and ladies in scarlet are far more vibrant than others in dull gray. In the present system named as CAANS, fundamental knowledge of influence of color on human behavior has been combined with basic aspects of empirical knowledge from areas of astrology and numerology. It has been the experience of this author that certain numbers repeatedly play a fortunate or unfortunate role in life as has been the experience of very many other humans and that in some way these numbers appear to be connected with ones date of birth. Starting with such elementary aspects of numerology and astrology and knowledge of colors, the CAANS system was gradually built up, initially as just an exercise for fun rather than anything more serious. However, as results emerged that appeared to be highly...
