

Polar Night (Polar Point) (Volume 1)

By Gen Gericault

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 238 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. The Heart Points North. Tamsin Norwood just wanted to study the eagles on Kodiak. Now, her life depends on her getting far, far away from the island and the madman who took her captive. Fate conspires, leading her to a magically-concealed safe haven in Arctic Alaska. The denizens of Polar Point are as complicated as they are fierce. From the wise old witch to the playful wolf and the snarky tiger, the secret community both baffles and intrigues Tamsin. But one resident in particular makes her question her very human instincts. Polar bear shifter Fisher Frost never wanted another sleuth. Not after the tragedy that befell his family. Wild polar bears have it right: its better to hunt alone. Alone means safe. Alone means steady. Alone means never losing another piece of himself. Fishers resolve wavers when the dawn of polar night brings his true mate. During the longest, coldest Alaskan nights, Fisher and Tamsin warm to one another. But can she melt this frozen bear Will they survive the twists and turns fate has prepared for them This item...
