Twenty Year s Experience as a Ghost Hunter. Elliott O Donnell (27 February 1872 - 8 May 1965) was an author known primarily for his books about ghosts. He claimed to have seen a ghost, described as an elemental figure covered with spots, when he was five years old. He also claimed to have been strangled by a mysterious phantom in Dublin (however, no permanent effect would seem to have been suffered). He was born in Clifton, the son of the Reverend Henry O Donnell (1827-1873) and Elizabeth Mousley (nee Harrison); he had three older siblings, Henry O Donnell, Helena O Donnell and Petronella O Donnell. After the birth of his fourth child the Rev. Henry O Donnell travelled to Abyssinia while awaiting preferment to a new parish. Here he was said to have been attacked by a gang and robbed and murdered. Elliott O Donnell claimed descent from Irish chieftains of ancient times, including Niall of the Nine Hostages (the King Arthur of Irish folklore) and Red Hugh, who fought the English in the sixteenth century. O Donnell was educated at Clifton College in Bristol, England, and later at Queen s Service Academy, Dublin, Ireland.
