God the Creator taught Adam, the first Man, about astronomy, horticultural, animal husbandry, metallurgy, and much more. However, Adams greatest knowledge was about God, who he knew more intimately than any other man. Over his lifetime Adam saw this knowledge slowly eroding as his sons moved away and forgot the wisdom of God he had taught them. Now, just before his death, Adam summons the clan leaders to meet on the Long Day and hear his timeless wisdom and truths about God one last time. Adam challenges his offspring to decide between Good and Evil, a challenge that is as relevant today as it was thousands of years ago. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
