Majesty: A Novel (Classic Reprint)

By Louis Couperus

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 350 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Excerpt from Majesty: A Novel The betting-book in one of London's oldest and most famous clubs contains a wager, with odds laid at one hundred sovereigns to ten, that within five years there will not remain two crowned heads in Europe. The condition - in the event of war between Great Britain and Germany - was imposed by the date of the wager, for one member was venturing his hundred to ten at a moment when another was dining with him to kill time before the British prime minister's ultimatum took effect: the imperial German government had to deliver its reply before midnight, by Greenwich time, or eleven o'clock, by Central European reckoning. Since the fourth of August, 1914, the King of the Hellenes, the Czar of Bulgaria, the Emperor-King of Austria-Hungary, the German Kaiser and a host of smaller princes have abdicated and sought asylum in countries left neutral by the war; the Czar of All the Russias also abdicated, but was executed without an opportunity of escape.
