

Intraneural Injections (Paperback)

By Dr Paul K Pybus, Anthony Di Fabio

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Intraneural Injections is perhaps the most basic and simple treatment for most bodily pains. There are two types of nerve fibers, A and C. The A fibres are covered with insulation similar to electric wire. The C fibers are wires inside the body running bare, without insulation. It will surprise you -- and most health professionals -- that the major share of joint pain, is produced by light damage to those C fibers. Dr. Paul Pybus learned the trick of eliminating these pains from his former teacher Roger Wyburn-Mason, M.D., Ph.D. Over a period of twenty years he satisfied himself that his treatment was correct and solid, that it did indeed bring comfort to thousands of his patients. When the Arthritis Trust of America foundation was founded based on treatments designed by Wyburn-Mason that cured rheumatoid arthritis, Pybus traveled from his South African home to the United States at his own expense to bring the vast relief of intraneural injections to American patients. This editor, who once suffered from Rheumatoid Arthritis, learned that intraneural injections eliminated not only the pains...
