

Supernormal: Book 2 of the Subnormal Series (Paperback)

By Stuart Kenyon

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The book: - Nearly half a decade has passed since Paul Kelly and his friends ousted dictator Alison Latham. The deposed Prime Minister and her Unity lackeys are in prison, and after years of war, the people of Great Britain are finally starting to recover. Former Zoner Paul and his surviving Rebel allies crave a normal life, free from the persecution and oppression they suffered before their emancipation. But a new threat is emerging, in the shape of radical faction Revelation. Led by charismatic zealot William Cayde, the army of fanatics aim to restore their idol Latham s version of utopia by sending subnormals like Paul back to industrial zones. They are willing to commit unspeakable acts of terror to achieve their goal, attacking the nation s weakest without mercy. Paul s Asperger s Syndrome means that Revelation class him as a subnormal. Back in 2015, he used his condition to his advantage. And he must do so again if he is to protect his adopted family and expose the unholy alliance which threatens to destroy everything he holds...
