Retribution is the first novel introducing DI Strong. He heads up his first murder case as Senior Investigating Officer after his transfer from The Met to Steepham. Not long after his arrival he s plunged into a multiply homicide. As the case progresses and the body count rises he begins to doubt his ability to solve these murders especially with the pressures being put upon him and the need to prove himself. Sergeant Taffy after a slightly rocky start becomes an invaluable and loyal consort along with the rest of the team. Strong relies on him for his local knowledge about the area and the community especially when children become involved. It was at this time he saw a different side to Taffy who until then portrayed an image of a non-nonsense copper. His compassion and ability to deal with grief astounded Strong. He was very lucky to have such an experience man at his side. Between some superb investigating and lucky breaks Strong is finally able bring the case to a successful conclusion.
