Her aunt Tais, a tall, slight girl of twelve, with a very long neck and small head, sat on the floor opposite her brother, and laughed merrily at every fresh attack of little Ta, and at the frequent harmless falls that were the result of her efforts. At the sight of Vera, Tais sprung to her feet, and a look of self-reproach succeeded to her gaiety. Oh! Vera, have you heard anything? Yes, said Vera, trying to speak calmly, that Nadine is not to be found, and that Aimee is gone also! H Aimee gone also! cried both her auditors, coming near to her, and taking each a hand with looks of such sympathy that Vera could scarcely nerve herself to continue- I have sent to the district police to describe Nadine, and have ordered our...
