Ray Flowers, a highly gifted writer who can plum tremendous insights from everyday events. Flowers follows in the rich tradition of Southern writers with Mississippi Comforts, bringing to life characters that make us belly-laugh one moment, cry the next. Stewart Lytle, Novelist/journalist. This book is a gentle reminder of why we embrace and read over and over again with zest our favorite Southern stories such as To Kill A Mockingbird, Steel Magnolias, The Help, or Cold Sassy Tree. Ray Flowers has a unique talent for story-telling in his honest, genuine and always surprising delivery! Ruth Baron, VP, The Point Group-Media Specialist Ray Flowers writes with a rarely seen, barely contained delight for all things Southern. His quick-sometimes biting-wit and vivid descriptions make for an incredibly entertaining read! Brianna Barrier Engeler, Author/Editor Mississippi Comforts: True Stories of Redemption and Hope is a poignant reminder that family and friends are constant sources of joy, heartache, aggravation, and companionship. These compelling vignettes describe the author s life, the son of an honored physician in small-town Mississippi and keenly traces his relationship with his father from childhood through adolescence and the observance of an emerging addiction. These real-life tales are humorous, occasionally highly humorous, occasionally heartbreaking, deeply woven with life-affirming truths. Life in the Deep South during the tumultuous years of 1950-75 gives rich fodder. Deeply intimate and brutally honest, each story is infused with the twin themes of redemption and hope. They create a beautifully written tale of hilarious situations, painful family secrets, and generous second chances. Do you like to read about childhood, teenager stories which contain all emotions? And those emotions change the person?...
