Paul of Tarsus drafted the greatest declarations of Christ-honoring, God-glorifying joy-and he did so while in shackles for preaching the gospel. The message of joy proclaimed in Philippians is so deep in its consolation that it engulfs the depths of human suffering and so broad in its application that it covers all of human experience. Through this careful, 13-lesson exposition of Philippians, Gary Hampton s writing shines light upon the all-encompassing joy found by the side of Jesus. Hampton s study is the perfect companion to Paul s inspired work, developing important themes and directing attention back to the heart of the book-deep, satisfying joy experienced in a life shared with Christ.
