Shortly afterwards they carried the gourd to the market. Here they made a goodly fortune by running pins into Mustapha that he might cry out for the amusement of the bystanders. Before long all Bagdad flocked to see and hear this wonderful gourd, and at last an officer of the Caliph s household arrived, paid a great sum for the gourd, and, putting it in a basket, carried it away to the palace. By and by Mustapha found himself in a superb room of the palace, where, surrounded by her ladies, the Princess lay upon a couch. Suddenly, Mustapha the gourd, as he lay in his basket, heard the voice of his beloved Lelie, who was fanning the Princess. This so moved poor Mustapha that he cried aloud, Allah! I hear my love! and so saying rolled from the basket and fell at...
