Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book is unusual because it is real. There is little narration. It can be called a toilet book because that is where it belongs. It can be called a coffee table book if you need somebody in your house or business to relax or to laugh. It is a book of lists. There is not much prose. There are few jokes unless you think that it is funny for a parent to name her kid, Martina Moron. Now, consider this information: Outraged customer ahead of me in a store. Unreasonable business associate. Nothing that a good chuckle can't cure. If you pay attention, you can learn a lot about people. Some of it is obvious. Some of it is bizarre. Now, about the obvious: Everybody has a name, and everybody can relate to names. As a person who talks but especially listens a lot, I run into unusual and quirky names often. Santa Claus, Jesus Christ, Candy Cane, and Treena Farts are among the people with odd names that I have met. No way? Have you ever checked out the tattoos that people have? Each and every one of them says something interesting and/or strange about that individual. Why can't a name have the same purpose? Anyway, this book has taken most of my life to write. I have written down the person's name and verified it later. No name has been incorrectly reported in my fierce quest for accuracy. I have learned that there is not a person alive who does not have or know somebody with a name that is atypical or weird. I met this wonderful woman named Luna. Her whole life, she was tormented by...
