Camera Phone (Paperback)

By Brooke Biaz

Parlor Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I crouch in Modern Film Classics while Karen, coming in from the backroom, and from the left, ten minutes after opening, makes some comment about some writer or another looking like Rene Russo. To which I call out: Oh, right, who exactly? I phone shoot her in medium shot with a wall of films by Scorsese behind her. On the seventh floor all is pretty quiet. The corridor is long, dog-legging at half way. A TV somewhere is playing what sounds like a repeat of 1980s cop show Hill Street Blues. I have no idea which episode, and, even though I ve seen them all more than once, I can t seem to get interested in thinking about it. The low-pile carpeting is allowing me to glide effortlessly and silently over it, while not forgetting to shoot each one of the apartment doors so that the threatening notion that one of them could open at any minute and reveal . . . CAMERA PHONE is a novel of cell phones and films-with some fabulous, low-cost recipes and recommendations for further reading....

Reviews

This is the greatest pdf i actually have go through right up until now. It is actually packed with knowledge and wisdom I found out this book from my dad and i advised this publication to find out.
