

Psychic

By Pam Headrick

Wailing Loon. Paperback. Condition: New. 330 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Life . . . we are told. . . progresses chronologically. Between birth and death we take certain roads. . . bypass others. There is only one life, one reality. But what if we have it all wrong In 1977 the government created a classified remote viewing program to gather intelligence by psychic means. In 1995 that program was terminated but what if that wasn't the whole story What if. . . Lizzie Gordon, a humble hotline psychic, performs readings from her One Tree, Colorado, trailer park. She's good at her work, life is good, but she harbors a guilt about not having been able to use her gift when she really needed to. Is she a fraud Then a dark visitor enters her life, claiming to be from the FBI, looking for a child molester. . . but what he tells her and what she senses are not quite the same, and her life is irrevocably changed. . . . Enter the world of psychic espionage. . . where people disappear. . . lives are destroyed. . . and facts are manipulated. Where one man stops at nothing...
