

The Janice H. Levin Collection of French Art

---

By Richard Shone

Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2002. Hardcover. Condition: New. Hardback with Dust Jacket. This volume is the catalogue for an exhibition at The Metropolitan Museum of Art for the French Impressionist paintings collected by Janice H. Levin and her husband, Philip, that graced the walls of their Fifth Avenue apartment until her death in 2001. The text presents these magnificent works and discusses each one's history and provenance as well as its connection to the Levins.
