Taylor Francis Inc, United Kingdom, 1999. Hardback. Condition: New. New.. Language: English . This book usually ship within 10-15 business days and we will endeavor to dispatch orders quicker than this where possible. Brand New Book. Written in a lively, engaging style, The Food and Drink Police is a thoroughgoing examination and critique of the efforts of government agencies and private organizations (including the Center for Science in the Public Interest, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, and the Food and Drug Administration) to regulate the dietary habits and choices of private citizens. Irreverent, yet always informed, the authors analyze the ideological motivations, spurious science, and assaults on freedom that underlie the activities of these groups. General readers, nutritionists and scientists in general, doctors, and government policymakers will find this indispensable reading. Chapters such as Eat, Drink, and Keel Over: Lasagna, Egg Rolls, and Popcorn Can Kill discuss the evils of multicultural cuisine and coffee, and the good news about junk food. In care for a Drink? and None for the Road the authors provide an in-depth look at Prohibition 1990s-style; Glow-in-the-Dark Eggs or Anal Leakage: Pick Your Poison provocatively fuels the current debate on fake fats and irradiated beef. In The Pleasure Police, David Shaw quotes the psychologist and advocate of defensive eating, Dr. Stephen Gullo, as advising his thin-obsessed patients to drink tomato juice before ordering in restaurants; tomato juice, after all, is a natural appetite suppressant. To which Shaw adds, I assume he also advises his clients to masturbate before making love. James T. Bennett and Thomas J. DiLorenzo expose this sort of convoluted advice in The Food and Drink Police, a timely and important contribution to the cultural debate on government and private choice.
