

Chief Joseph And The Flight Of The Nez Perce: The Untold Story Of An American Tragedy (Paperback)

By Kent Nerburn

HarperCollins Publishers Inc, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. Hidden in the shadow cast by the great western expeditions of Lewis and Clark lies another journey every bit as poignant, every bit as dramatic, and every bit as essential to an understanding of who we are as a nation -- the 1,800-mile journey made by Chief Joseph and eight hundred Nez Perce men, women, and children from their homelands in what is now eastern Oregon through the most difficult, mountainous country in western America to the high, wintry plains of Montana. There, only forty miles from the Canadian border and freedom, Chief Joseph, convinced that the wounded and elders could go no farther, walked across the snowy battlefield, handed his rifle to the U.S. military commander who had been pursuing them, and spoke his now-famous words, From where the sun now stands, I will fight no more forever. The story has been told many times, but never before in its entirety or with such narrative richness. Drawing on four years of research, interviews, and 20,000 miles of travel, Nerburn takes us beyond the surrender to the captives unlikely welcome in Bismarck, North Dakota,...

Reviews

An extremely wonderful pdf with perfect and lucid information. Better than never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication will be worth purchasing. It is written in straightforward words and not hard to understand. I am just very happy to explain how here is the best ebook we have read in my own lifestyle and might be the best publication for at any time.
