Excerpt: . . . five years, he was elected a member of the state assembly from the county of Wyoming for 1888 and 1889. While in the assembly he served as a member of the important judiciary committee. Representing Wyoming county, the center of the western New York salt fields, he started a movement that resulted in the amendment of the constitution of the state, providing for the sale of the state salt reservation at Syracuse, and thus removing the state as a competitor against the private capital employed in the salt industry in western New York. The strong fight made by Mr. Van Gorder on this question made him a prominent figure in what was then the 30th senatorial district, composed of Livingston, Niagara, Genesee, and Wyoming counties. In the fall of 1889 he was elected state senator with but little opposition, and was re-elected two years later. In the senate, also, he was a member of the judiciary committee. In both houses Mr. Van Gorder proved himself a painstaking servant, and performed his duties with credit and distinction. He was identified with much important legislation. He was the author, for example, of one of the best and most far-reaching laws ever placed upon the statute books of the state--namely, the act to prevent any peace officer or police official from engaging in the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors. In the session of 1893 he was the author and introducer of the Bi-partisan Election Inspectors bill,...
