CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 100 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. This is a book that is a MUST READ for anyone either planning for, in the midst of, caring for a senior parent, as well as those who are planning for their own aging years. Suzanne Perkins Newman Founder CEO AnswersForElders.com Throughout the United States there are roughly 38 million Americans over the age of 65, and there are forecast to be approximately 88 million by 2050. Over 70 of couples over age 65 will need some kind of long-term care during their lifetime. But many people fail to consider their future properly, including the possibility of incurring illnesses, losing independence, and how they want to be cared for. Families are often unprepared when an event occurs like a stroke or chronic illness. This book provides you information on a broad scope of needs and options as regards the natural progression of aging. In addition, and more importantly, it will heighten your awareness while also simplifying what can be very overwhelming, at first glance. We will guide you through the ways to start planning for the care of a family member as they age, and help you to prepare before a caregiving event occurs. We stress the importance of planning in advance, before crisis arises. When you wait until the last minute to plan, mistakes happen and opportunities are lost. Good planning takes time. As you will find in working through this book, there are many issues to think and talk about in advance. When you finish this book, though, you will be equipped to understand and consider the action steps that you must take in order to properly plan for yourself and your family, and will be able to...
