Springer Publishing Company. Paperback. Condition: New. 325 pages. A milestone resource for palliative care nurses that facilitates evidence-based compassionate and humanistic care of the dying a valuable contribution to the evolving field of palliative nursing care. It is coauthored by a model for this field, Bonnie Freeman, and brings to the bedside what her practice embodies - evidence-based clinically expert care. . . The CARES tool is a long-needed resource and we are all grateful to the authors for moving their passion to paper. It will touch the lives and deaths of patients, families and the nurses who care for them. - Betty Ferrell, PhD, RN, MA, FAAN, FCPN, CHPN Professor and Director Division of Nursing Research and Education City of Hope National Medical Center This groundbreaking reference for palliative care nurses is the first to provide realistic and achievable evidence-based methods for incorporating compassionate and humanistic care of the dying into current standards of practice. It builds on the authors research-based CARES Tool, a reference that synthesizes five key elements demonstrated to enable a peaceful death as free from suffering as possible: Comfort, Airway Management, Management of Restlessness and Delirium, Emotional and Spiritual Support, and Self-Care for Nurses. The book describes step-by-step how nurses can easily implement the basic tenets of the CARES Tool into their end-of-life practice. It provides a clearly defined plan that can be individualized for each patient and tailored to specific family needs, and facilitates caring for the dying in the most respectful and humane way possible. The book identifies the most common symptom management needs in dying patients and describes in detail the five components of the CARES paradigm and how to implement them to enable a peaceful death and minimize suffering. It includes palliative care prompts founded on 29 evidence-based recommendations and the...
