Excerpt from Charlestown Navy Yard Redevelopment, Vol. 1 of 2: Final Supplemental, Environmental Impact Report; September 3, 1991 The Charlestown Navy Yard is a 135-acre waterfront site adjacent to the Charlestown community. The site was used as an active naval facility from 1800 until its decommissioning by the federal government in 1974. In 1978, the property was acquired by the Boston Redevelopment Authority and a comprehensive redevelopment program was begun involving the adaptive reuse of existing historic structures in one of the largest historic preservation efforts ever undertaken in the country. This redevelopment effort also included the development of new buildings, the construction of major public Open space areas, the repair of piers and other waterfront structures, and substantial street improvements. A Final Environmental Impact Report for a proposed redevelopment plan for the Charlestown Navy Yard was reviewed by the Executive Office of Environmental Affairs and approved in 1978. (as approved, the feir is referred to herein as the 1977 Since that time, eoea has approved several modifications and clarifications to the original approval. (a summary of prior actions under the Massachusetts Environmental...
